55th WORLD ROWING
FISA TOUR

Costa Brava - Spain

From 13th to 20th
May 2018

In 2018 the World Rowing Tour will take place in Catalonia, along the Costa Brava, just north of regional capital Barcelona.

The coastal rowing tour will be travelling from Llançà to Lloret, from 13th to 20th of May.

Tour details:

13.05.2017
(Sunday)

Arrival day

We will host all the rowers in Roses, which will be the northern camp base of our tour. The welcome ceremony and briefing will be held in the hotel, during the presentation dinner.

14.05.2017
(Monday)

Llançà → Cadaqués

A coach will take the rowers to the Platja de Llançà, which will be the starting point of the tour.

The stage will take you to Cadaqués (around 20 km), rowing past the quaint fishing town of Port de la Selva and various beach coves to rest or explore including Port Lligat, Salvador Dalí's birthplace.

After lunch we will visit the fascinating Dalí Museum in Figueres, having dinner nearby, before heading back to the hotel.

15.05.2017
(Tuesday)

Cadaqués → Roses

Rowers will travel a similar distance from Cadaqués to Roses, still around the impressive Cap de Creus. Main attractions include the Cala Montjoi – world famous spot best known as the home of the restaurant El Bulli – , or the Almadraba beach.

We will be able to discover more regional attractions, heading to the amazing Sant Pere de Rodes Monastery, for another guided visit. Rowers will still spend the night in Roses.

16.05.2017
(Wednesday)

Roses → l'Estartit

The third rowing stage will take participants from Roses to L' Estartit (around 28 km), rowing by the Bird watching haven of the Aiguamolls de l'Empordà Natural Park, or the rugged coastline around L'Escala and Empúries.

Later on you will visit the charming medieval towns of Pals and Peratallada. Rowers will sleep in the southern camp base hotel in Sant Pol beach, next to S'Agaró.

17.05.2017
(Thursday)

L'Estartit → Calella de Palafrugell

This stage travels from L'Estartit to Calella de Palafrugell (about 22 km). During the morning you will admire beautiful spots and beaches along the Begur area.

Before having dinner by the lake of Banyoles, you will have the chance to hear fascinating rowing stories around the 1992 Olympics Rowing event, and enjoy a fun and friendly Dragon boat regatta amongst the participants.

18.05.2017
(Friday)

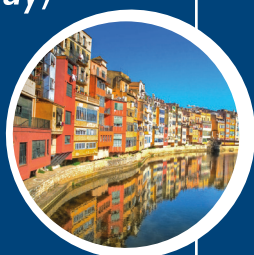

Calella de Palafrugell → St. Feliu

This morning will take us to Sant Feliu de Guíxols (around 20 km). On the way you will admire the Cala de Castell, near Palamós, and finalize the stage very near your hotel.

In the afternoon you will be toured around the city of Girona, full of life and history, and will enjoy dinner in town.

19.05.2017
(Saturday)

St. Feliu → Lloret de Mar

The last day in the water will take rowers to Lloret, covering a similar distance as the day before and encountering numerous beach coves and the famous walled town of Tossa de Mar.

Upon arrival to the end of the tour, you will be able to experience rowing in a Catalan traditional boat, the Llagut. You can then spend the rest of the afternoon enjoying lunch and free time in the arrival beach before heading back to the hotel, ready for the farewell dinner.

20.05.2017
(Sunday)

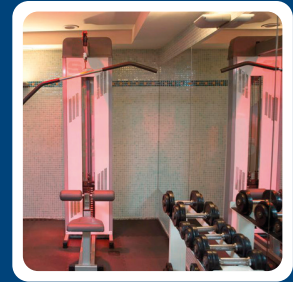

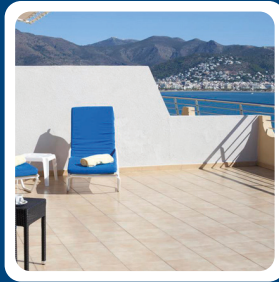

Departure day

After breakfast, our coach will transfer all rowers to Barcelona or Girona airports, or just drop you at a convenient location if you want to spend more time discovering the region on your own.
